10. Parties seeking to make post-discovery dispositive motions should submit a letter to the Court in accordance with Rule 4(A) of the Court's Individual Practices by February 7, 2017. Opposition letters are due February 14, 2017.

Pursuant to Rule 1(D) of the Court's Individual Practices, the parties state:

- (1) The deadlines sought to be extended are those starting from the current fact discovery closing date of October 31, 2016, and that all of these dates be moved forward by three (3) months, respectively. Such three month movement of such dates are shown above.
- (2) The requested extension of the parties is three (3) months.
- (3) This is the parties' first request for extension of these dates.
- (4) The parties have been unable to complete document production, and as such, no depositions have yet taken place and the parties do not anticipate being able to do so by the upcoming October 31, 2016 deadlines. The parties have also been negotiating various discovery disputes, and such are not yet resolved.
- (5) Both parties consent to the above extensions.
